FROM THE COMMANDER

Since Covid it has been more difficult for all of us to stay in touch. For many of us Covid has reshaped us, our lives and touched us with losses and grief. It is therefore imperative that we reach out to our Legion Family. It is important that we check on those that are ill, infirmed or we just haven't heard or seen in a long time. There are a number of events happening at the Post not only for charitable organizations but an opportunity for families to come together and share camaraderie. It is most important now to remember the simple things like birthdays and anniversaries. Children and grandchildren milestones. All of us have made sacrifices for our country and community and in the coming months of Memorial Day remembering those that allowed us to enjoy our freedoms and privilege who are not here to share our joy with. Please share with me by the first Friday of every month the moments and events that you would like to share with the 468 American Legion Family.

For God and Country
