

468 AMERICAN LEGION POST NEWSLETTER

Thank you to our 468 New York State Medal winners presented by Senator Jeremy Cooney

From the Commander

MY FINAL NEWSLETTER

This will be my final newsletter to you. The next month of May marks the inauguration of our new commander. It has been an honor and privilege to serve all of you. Thank you for your guidance and patience.

Thank you for your support to the American Legion family and the programs we represent in the community as without your support the sense of community and family camaraderie these programs would not exist.

Like most commanders before me I too will fade away, oh I will still garnish a spot at the riders table on steak-night bingo and I will continue to MC Thursday night pot of gold. I will still be around for many post activities.

Please welcome the new commander. Show the person your support.
