THE FOUR CHAPLAINS' CEREMONY HOSTED BY CHAPLAIN DICK REBER

From the Commander

I want to thank our chaplain Dick Reber for putting together out four chaplains 80th Anniversary remembrance ceremony. Eighty years ago, today.

I want to thank everyone for supporting post activities every Tuesday night we have the Queen of Hearts drawing hosted by our own Abe Woodard heart of gold and comedian extraordinaire. Then Jim Redden takes us through the hilarious adventure of steak-night-bingo. If you haven't played before come, on down to the post for dinner the kitchen opens at five and then stay and play and enjoy the camaraderie. I would love to meet you.

Thursday night is the pot of gold drawing along with 50/50's and other raffles. Every 50/50 supports a different post organization every week. C'mon down for the fun. During these gatherings myself, officers and members of the staff keep you informed about not only what's happening at the post but helpful information to all veterans and our community.

Watch the Calendar for when the SAL puts on a happy hour at the post it always includes a local musical talent performing. Always have a fun time.
